

Batariel is a fierce warrior; a member of the Watchers! Born almost five thousand years ago, he has spent his existence protecting humanity from his fallen enemies. He knows he has a "spirit" mate; they just hadn't crossed each other's path, yet. That is until the day he arrives in the park a split second too late. Right before his eyes his woman was riddled with stray bullets. His leader saved her life, but who can save Batariel from the rage that is consuming him. Plus, the mob now wants her dead, again! How far will Batariel go to protect his mate? How many bodies will he leave in his path. Robyn is as fierce a warrior as Batariel, but after seeing her die in his arms, he's afraid to touch her. Can she convince him that she isn't a breakable china doll? That she needs more from their relationship than his timid touch. Will they survive this test or will Batariel lose his "spirit" mate after waiting all these years?
