

The 25th April, 1915 saw the ANZACs land at Gallipoli and create a legend that lives on to this day. At the forefront of the landing were the men of the Queensland 9th Battalion - volunteers who answered the call to King and Country and were now to be the first to land at Gallipoli and face the Turkish enemy. This is their story - from humble beginnings in the 1860s, through the Great War and up to the start of World War II. This is a brief history of a famous Australian infantry battalion.
