

Santorini has long been the ultimate destination for romance in the alluring Greek Isles. Its breathtaking views and charming simplicity bathed in tradition make it the ideal vacation spot...but also the perfect island escape. Jack is an accomplished author whose mystery, charm, and good looks gain the attention of many women; however none has been able to break down the barricade he has built around himself. That is until Katherine, an exuberant woman filled with the love of life, disrupts his plan to remain undisturbed as he writes his next best-selling novel. A compelling romance inspired by real events that will captivate and intrigue, capturing on its way the beauty of Santorini and the high and low tides of true love.
